WHERE TO START

The Blended Visa Office-Referred (BVOR) program is the fastest way to sponsor refugees. Through it, sponsors can welcome and support refugees who have been identified for urgent resettlement by the UN Refugee Agency.

BVOR refugees have been approved to come to Canada and are ready to travel. This means they will arrive shortly after you apply – typically in 6 to 12 weeks.

The Canadian government provides six months of income support to BVOR refugees and sponsors provide the other six months, along with start-up costs. Sponsors also provide a year of settlement support.

Create global change through local action by sponsoring a BVOR refugee. Contact bvor@rstp.ca or call us toll-free 1.877.290.1701

"The quick response that we got from RSTP shows that it's a very welcoming place. When you approach them directly and need a specific answer, they're amazing."

REFUGEE SPONSORSHIP TRAINING PROGRAM (RSTP)

The Refugee Sponsorship Training Program (RSTP) provides resources and services to meet the ongoing information and training needs of Canada's refugee sponsors. RSTP Trainers across Canada provide guidance, training, and other types of assistance to private refugee sponsorship groups.

PRIVATE SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

Eligible individuals and organizations in Canada can sponsor refugees as a Group of Five, a Community Sponsor or through a Sponsorship Agreement Holder (SAH). Private sponsors offer financial and settlement support to sponsored refugees for one year.

"Without you at RSTP I would still be filling out forms!" — Tyler Berglund, BVOR Sponsor, Hamilton
